Moldovan PM, ambassador approach current issues

21 november 2024, Chișinău - Prime Minister Dorin Recean had a farewell meeting with Ambassador Thomas Mayr-Harting.

The talks between the officials focused on issues relevant to the Transnistrian settlement and the country's reintegration.

The sides approached the security situation in the region, in the context of the Russian Federation's war against Ukraine, as well as the measures for the economic and social integration of citizens from both banks of the Dniester.
