Deputy Prime Minister for Reintegration had a courtesy meeting with the British Ambassador to the Republic of Moldova

The Deputy Prime Minister for Reintegration, Olga Cebotari, had a meeting with the British Ambassador to the Republic of Moldova, Steven Fisher. They discussed Chisinau's priorities on the Transnistrian settlement and promotion of the country's reintegration policies.

Olga Cebotari reiterated Chisinau's intentions on the peaceful and sustainable settlement of the Transnistrian issue, as well as the need to maintain a permanent and constructive dialogue in all agreed negotiation formats, in order to find viable solutions to current problems that would meet the interest of Moldovan citizens.

The Deputy Prime Minister emphasized the importance of the support provided by the United Kingdom both at the political level and in the development processes.

The Deputy Prime Minister particularly thanked for the assistance provided in the humanitarian field and on respect for human rights in the Transnistrian region, as well as for supporting the approach to a comprehensive regulation that respects the sovereignty and territorial integrity of the Republic of Moldova.

The institutional capacity strengthening on strategic communication was also highlighted as a priority, given the availability of assistance programs in this regard from the British authorities.

The parties expressed their full openness to continue cooperation and expand it into new areas.
