

Meeting of the Deputy Prime Minister for reintegration with the team leader of the Malteser International humanitarian needs assessment team

The Deputy Prime Minister for reintegration Oleg Serebrian met with Peter Bateman, the team leader of the Malteser International humanitarian needs assessment team, who came to the Republic of Moldova for a a documentation visit.

Malteser International is a non-governmental international agency for humanitarian assistance of the Sovereign Order of Malta, which provides support in crisis situations (natural disasters, epidemics, armed conflicts) and conducts programs allowing people to recover their losses.

The discussions concerned the latest developments in the Transnistrian issue, the current situation of the refugees from Ukraine who are on the territory of the Republic of Moldova and continue to arrive here, the potential support measures to be provided to them, as well as the efforts undertaken by the national authorities to manage efficiently the processes in the state of emergency period.

