

Deputy Prime Minister for reintegration will attend the 15th annual Lennart Meri Conference with the generic "Tempus Fugit - Time Flees"

Between May 13th and 15th, Deputy Prime Minister Oleg Serebrian will attend the 15th annual Lennart Meri annual conference entitled "Tempus Fugit - Time Flees" in Tallinn, Estonia.

At the conference, at the initiative of the President of Estonia, Alar Karis, Deputy Prime Minister for reintegration will give a speech on recent developments in the Transnistrian issue, regional security issues and dialogue with relevant external partners.

During his stay in Tallinn, Oleg Serebrian will also hold bilateral meetings with Estonian Prime Minister Kaja Kallas, Estonian Foreign Minister Eva-Maria Liimets, United Kingdom Foreign Office Minister of State James Cleverly, German MFA State Minister Tobias Lindner, Director of the Estonian Foreign Policy Institute Kristi Raik, and other senior officials.

The Lennart Meri Conference was designed in 2007 to become an important foreign policy and security event in the region in order to identify solutions to the problems the European community is facing.

