

The Transnistrian topic was discussed by the head of the Bureau of Reintegration Policies, Alin Gvidiani, and the researcher of the University of Liverpool, Dr. Colin Irwin

The approaches, priorities and activities carried out by the Moldovan authorities on the Transnistrian issue and in relation to the inhabitants on both banks of the Nistru River, from the perspective of promoting the country's reunification desideratum, were discussed during a meeting between the head of the Bureau of Reintegration Policies, Alin Gvidiani and University of Liverpool researcher, Dr. Colin Irwin.

The positive actions and the opportunities offered on the right bank were highlighted, as well as their substantial impact on generating an atmosphere of unity and interconnection, emphasizing the need to promote democratic values, fundamental human rights, confidence-building measures and sustainable development projects, as elements stimulating the progress in the process of a final, peaceful and all-encompassing settlement of the Transnistrian conflict.
