The commitment to the political and peaceful settlement of the transnistrian conflict was reiterated at the meeting of the Deputy Prime Minister for Reintegration with the special representative of Ukraine for the Transnistrian settlement

The Deputy Prime Minister Oleg Serebrian had a meeting with the Special Representative of Ukraine for the Transnistrian settlement Yuri Klimenko, who is on a working visit to the Republic of Moldova, being accompanied by the Ambassador of Ukraine to the Republic of Moldova, Marko Şevcenko.

During the dialogue, the latest advancements in the negotiation formats regarding the Transnistrian settlement, the approaches and priority directions of intervention of the authorities of the Republic of Moldova to satisfy the daily needs of the inhabitants on both banks of Nistru, as well as the primordial problems that remain in view, were evoked.

It was emphasized that the "1+1" format and the sectoral working groups remain functional at present, and the commitment to the political and peaceful settlement of the Transnistrian conflict within the sovereign and integrated territorial state of the Republic of Moldova remains valid despite some allegations being provocatively launched in the public space.

The officials exchanged information and opinions on the complex regional situation, the aspects that require permanent coordination, the forms of mutual assistance provided by the Republic of Moldova and Ukraine, the progress made in the European integration process, being reiterated the firm support for sovereignty and the territorial integrity of both countries, the prevention of destabilization outbreaks and the maintenance of an atmosphere of security and prosperity.

It was agreed to maintain the permanent channels of communication, cooperation, and coordination to effectively manage the elements of common interest.

