Meeting of Deputy Prime Minister for Reintegration Oleg Serebrian with the new Head of the OSCE Mission in the Republic of Moldova, Ms. Kelly Keiderling

Deputy Prime Minister for Reintegration Oleg Serebrian met with the new Head of the OSCE Mission to Moldova, Ms. Kelly Keiderling, who took office on October 3rd, 2022.

During the meeting, the current dynamics of the Transnistrian settlement negotiations, the Moldovan Government's priorities in the field of reintegration policies were discussed.

The complexity of the current regional security situation was also highlighted, being noted the indispensability of coordinating actions in order to maintain an atmosphere of normality, predictability, and confidence-building, including in the perimeter of the Security Zone and in the eastern districts of the country.

Deputy Prime Minister Oleg Serebrian pointed out that, under the new conditions, a way should be found to adjust the country's reintegration agenda with that of European integration. It was emphasized that the settlement of the Transnistrian file should lead to the strengthening of the state of the Republic of Moldova.

A distinct attention was paid to the issue of human rights in the Transnistrian region, in the context of the very alarming situation in this field, stressing the need to synchronize efforts and use all possible levers of intervention in order to provide the necessary assistance to victims whose rights have been violated and ensure respect for universally guaranteed standards.
