

Moldovan PM has meeting with Estonian counterpart

Prime Minister Alexandru Munteanu today in Gdańsk met Prime Minister of Estonia Kristen Michal. The discussions focused on deepening the bilateral relations, advancing Moldova's European integration process, as well as expanding the Moldovan-Estonian economic cooperation.

The Moldovan PM thanked Estonia for its constant support of the European path of Moldova and welcomed the decision of the Tallinn authorities to open an embassy in Chisinau in the second half of this year.

"Estonia is a reliable partner and a strong supporter of Moldova's European integration. Its experience in building modern institutions, digitalizing public services and strengthening cybersecurity is a valuable model for the transformation of our country," said Prime Minister Alexandru Munteanu.

The officials also discussed the continuation of joint projects in the field of e-governance and cybersecurity, as well as combating disinformation and hybrid threats.

The sides also underlined the importance of increasing Estonian investments in the country's economy. Estonian companies are expanding their presence on the market of Moldova, contributing to jobs' creation and the development of new production capacities. At the same time, according to data for 2025, the volume of trade between Moldova and Estonia increased by 44 per cent, reaching 14.43 million euros.
