Issues Regarding the Strengthening of the Moldovan-British strategic Partnership and Support for the Reintegration Process Discussed in London

On 2 November 2026, Deputy Prime Minister for Reintegration Valeriu Chiveri, during a working visit to London, met with Stuart Martin Wood, Lord Wood of Anfield, Parliamentary Under-Secretary of State for Europe, International Security and Growth at the Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland.

During the meeting, officials discussed aspects of bilateral Moldovan-British cooperation, reaffirming the strategic nature of the partnership between the Republic of Moldova and the United Kingdom, with a focus on strengthening resilience and supporting the reform agenda.

Deputy Prime Minister Valeriu Chiveri briefed on the progress of the Transnistrian settlement process, as well as on the measures taken by the authorities of the Republic of Moldova in implementing reintegration policies, with an emphasis on supporting the residents on both banks of the Nistru River. In this regard, the objectives of the operationalized Convergence Fund and the projects planned for implementation for the benefit of the citizens of the Republic of Moldova residing in the Transnistrian region of the country were outlined, aimed at reducing socioeconomic disparities between the two banks.

Particular mention was made of the important role of programs implemented with British assistance aimed at building confidence between communities on both banks of the Nistru and supporting economic development.

In this context, the Deputy Prime Minister thanked the British authorities for their constant support in promoting a peaceful settlement of the Transnistrian conflict while respecting the sovereignty and territorial integrity of the Republic of Moldova. The parties reaffirmed their commitment to maintaining ongoing dialogue and close cooperation to further consolidate the Moldovan-British strategic partnership.

The visit program includes meetings and discussions with politicians from the United Kingdom aimed at enhancing dialogue on reintegration policies.
