The Reintegration Process of the Republic of Moldova and the United Kingdom’s Support on the Agenda of Deputy Prime Minister Valeriu Chiveri’s Discussions in the UK Parliament

The discussion on the reintegration process and UK support for the Republic of Moldova continued during the meetings held by Deputy Prime Minister for Reintegration Valeriu Chiveri in the British Parliament.

The Deputy Prime Minister met with House of Commons MP Joanna Baxter and Lord Dubs, co-chairs of the All-Party Parliamentary Group for the Republic of Moldova, as well as with Dame Emily Thornberry, Chair of the Foreign Affairs Committee of the British Parliament, and a group of Committee MPs.

The discussions focused on developments in the Republic of Moldova, in particular the authorities’ efforts to strengthen the country’s resilience and advance the reintegration process. The meeting also highlighted Chișinău’s actions to support citizens of the Republic of Moldova living in the Transnistrian region of the country, aimed at building trust, supporting economic development, and gradually integrating them into a common national space.

The Deputy Prime Minister expressed his gratitude to the British side for its multifaceted support provided to the Republic of Moldova, including assistance in promoting peaceful reintegration while respecting the country’s sovereignty and territorial integrity.

Additionally, during his visit to London, Deputy Prime Minister Valeriu Chiveri participated in a roundtable discussion hosted by the Royal United Services Institute (RUSI) think tank, featuring experts and members of the diplomatic corps. The event provided an opportunity to present the policies implemented in the field of reintegration and to exchange views on the current situation in the Republic of Moldova.
