

Moldovan PM, official of France discuss opportunities of consolidating bilateral dialogue

22 November 2024, Chişinău - The firm support for the country's European integration way and the implementation of the key reforms for Moldova's modernization today was reconfirmed by Minister Delegate for Foreign Affairs of France Benjamin Haddad at a meeting with Prime Minister Dorin Recean.

The officials discussed the present regional situation, the goals of the bilateral agenda and opportunities of consolidating the Moldovan-French bilateral dialogue in sectors of mutual interest.

The PM appreciated the constant support of the French side, including in programmes on Moldova's European integration. Also, the prime minister referred to the current priorities of the authorities, focused on the ensuring of peace and security, re-launch of the economy, reformation of justice. "The justice reform stays at the basis of all other reforms. It is essential that honest and courageous judges and prosecutors should be present in the system," Dorin Recean stressed.

Another goal highlighted by the prime minister deals with the attraction of foreign investments into the national economy. "We urge the business people from France to invest in Moldova. The sectors which provide you with multiple possibilities and register a continuous growth represent the information technologies, electronic, pharmaceuticals. This country has talent and innovations - we are looking for long-term capital, in order to turn them to good account," PM Dorin Recean added.