

Political representatives from Chisinau and Tiraspol discussed current issues on the negotiation agenda and agreed on the need to make progress in identifying sustainable and viable solutions

21.04.2021, Chisinau – According to the existing practices, a working meeting took place in Bender, on 21 April, between the Chief-negotiator from Chisinau, Olga Cebotari, and the political representative from Tiraspol in the negotiation process on the Transnistrian settlement, Vitalii Ignatiev.

During the meeting, the political representatives reviewed the topical situation in the negotiation process on the Transnistrian settlement, the current issues on the agenda, and the recent progress of the sectoral working groups. They also exchanged views on current topics and expressed readiness to identify viable solutions in the interest of the inhabitants from both banks of Nistru.

