Meeting of the Deputy Prime Minister for reintegration Oleg Serebrian with the Ambassador of the Czech Republic in the Republic of Moldova Stanislav Kazecky

Actual subjects regarding the Transnistrian issue were part of the agenda of discussions. Among them was the current situation in the negotiation process, the developments and planned activities, the essential objectives aimed at solving the existing problems between the two banks of the Nistru River.

The Deputy Prime Minister Oleg Serebrian has highlighted as priorities the re-establishment and promotion of the constructive dialogue within all existing negotiation formats, relaunching the activity of the „5+2” format, solving difficulties existing in the human rights area, the good functioning of the institutions of education, in the unhindered agricultural use of arable lands in the Dubăsari district, in the process of legal registration of vehicles etc.

The discussions have included projects of assistance and sustainable development offered by the Czech authorities in partnership with the competent national authorities to the inhabitants on both banks (social area, consolidating infrastructure, healthcare, water and sanitation, environment protection etc.). Heartfelt gratitude was expressed for the offered support and availability in continuing and developing forms of assistance in this regard was stated.