Weekly meeting of the Joint Control Commission

Today, March 3, 2022, the members of the Joint Control Commission had a working meeting in Bender, where they held discussions regarding the evolutions of the situation in the region and how it could influence the mechanisms of peacekeeping on the Nistru River.

The sides expressed the necessity to conduct additional consultations, which is why, at the proposal of the delegation of the Russian Federation, the ordinary meeting of the Commission has been postponed.
