The head of the Bureau for Reintegration Policies Alin Gvidiani in dialogue with the representative of the international committee of the Red Cross in the Republic of Moldova Doris El Doueilhy

On the occasion of her recent appointment as Representative of the International Committee of the Red Cross in the Republic of Moldova and following the interest manifested in the state of affairs in the Transnistrian region, the head of the Country Mission Doris El Doueihy met with the Head of the Bureau for Reintegration Policies Alin Gvidiani.

The meeting focused on exchanging up-to-date information on the Mission's activities and priorities in carrying out a series of assistance measures to the beneficiaries on both banks of the Nistru River, including the Ukrainian refugees temporarily housed in the Republic of Moldova.

It was agreed to maintain a permanent cooperation and coordination on activities and projects targeting the perimeter of the Transnistrian region.
