

Meetings of the Deputy Prime Minister for reintegration with senior officials from Brussels

Mr. Oleg Serebrian, Deputy Prime Minister for Reintegration of the Republic of Moldova paid an official visit to Brussels during October 10-12, this year.

At the invitation of Mr. Josep Borrell, High Representative of the EU for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy/Vice-President of the EU Commission, the Deputy Prime Minister attended on Tuesday, October 11, the EU Ambassadors Annual Conference 2022.

The visit agenda also included meetings with Ambassador Michael Siebert, Managing Director for Eastern Partnership and Central Asia of the European External Action Service, with Mrs. Nathalie Loiseau, chair of the sub-committee on Security and Defense in the European Parliament, with Mrs. Dorota Dlouchy-Suliga, EU representative in the 5+2 negotiation format, etc.

The Deputy Prime Minister informed the European officials about the new trends in the Transnistrian settlement process, reiterating the willingness of Chisinau for a peaceful and comprehensive settlement, respecting the unity and territorial integrity of the Republic of Moldova.

The official also spoke about the deepening of the energy crisis, which may also affect the localities on the left bank of the Nistru river given the new circumstances. These difficulties make it even more necessary to relaunch discussions on a lasting solution to the Transnistrian issue.

In the new international and regional context, the EU is to have a more visible and influential role in the negotiation process, and the discussions about the country's reintegration are to be related to the European integration process.
