The Reintegration Policies Bureau has been restructured

In the context of the reorganisation of the State Chancellery and the approval of the Government Decision No. 789/2022, the Reintegration Policies Bureau, as a division within the State Chancellery, has been partially reformed, without changing the number of staff units of the Bureau.

Thus, according to the new structure, the Bureau will consist of 4 internal subdivisions as follows:

1. Assistance Projects Section - responsible for managing development projects on the Transnistrian dimension;

2. Sectoral policies for the reintegration of the country - responsible for the sectoral coordination of the country's reintegration activities;

3. Analytical and Information Section - responsible for the development of analytical syntheses on the situation in the Transnistrian region, communication and public information on the activities of the Bureau;

4. Legal and Security Affairs Service - responsible for expertise and elaboration of normative acts and the collaboration with the delegation of the Republic of Moldova to the Joint Control Commission.

In accordance with its Rules of Activity, the Bureau will continue to be responsible for the coordination/ implementation of the country's reintegration policies and for the organization of the Transnistrian settlement negotiation process within the established dialogue formats, reporting on strategic-political aspects to the Deputy Prime Minister responsible for the implementation of the country's reintegration policies and on administrative aspects to the Secretary General of the Government.
