

Deputy Prime Minister Oleg Serebrian had a working meeting with the director of the European Commission Service for Foreign Policy Instruments Peter M. Wagner

Today, 13 December 2023, Deputy Prime Minister for Reintegration Oleg Serebrian had a working meeting with the Director of the European Commission Service for Foreign Policy Instruments, Mr Peter M.Wagner, accompanied by the Head of the European Union Delegation to the Republic of Moldova, Mr. Janis Mazeiks.

During the meeting an exchange of views took place on the main developments in the Transnistrian settlement file, including from the perspective of the constantly changing regional security situation and the multiple challenges to stability in the Black Sea area.

The situation in the Security Zone in the context of the prolongation of the war in Ukraine was also discussed by the interlocutors. The Moldovan Deputy Prime Minister informed about the actions carried out by the national authorities and highlighted the challenges that require special attention and appropriate responses.

Deputy Prime Minister Oleg Serebrian noted the substantial role of the opportunities and assistance projects offered to the Republic of Moldova in the European integration process, which bring added value in advancing the country's reintegration process.

The interlocutors reiterated the importance of continuous coordination of activities and approaches on issues of mutual interest.

