The strengthening of cooperation in areas of common interest was discussed at the meeting of Deputy Prime Minister Oleg Serebrian with a group of British members of parliament

The complex regional situation in the context of the war in Ukraine and its devastating consequences, the energy issue, the developments of the Transnistrian file were the topics discussed during the talks held between the Deputy Prime Minister for Reintegration Oleg Serebrian and the delegation of the Defense Committee of the House of Commons, the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland of the North, led by Tobias Ellwood.

The officials also referred to the positive dynamics of bilateral cooperation between the Republic of Moldova and Great Britain, joint interest being expressed in the continuation of projects to strengthen trust, as well as for cooperation in the framework of new initiatives for the benefit of the citizens of the entire territory of the Republic of Moldova.

