Deputy Prime Minister for Reintegration, Cristina Lesnic, had a discussion with the Ambassador of Sweden, Anna Lyberg

The Deputy Prime Minister for Reintegration, Cristina Lesnic, had a discussion on Thursday with Her Excellency, Anna Lyberg, the Ambassador of Sweden to the Republic of Moldova.

Cristina Lesnic thanked the Ambassador for the opportunity to discuss topics of common interest and for the cooperation between Moldova and Sweden. A number of issues were addressed within the meeting, including the general situation in the negotiation process, given that Sweden will take over the OSCE Chairmanship in 2021.

The main topic of the dialogue between the officials was the human rights situation in the region. The Deputy Prime Minister informed about the alarming individual cases, which require maximum attention from the 5+2 actors and all the international partners of the Republic of Moldova that deal with the human rights component.

The Deputy Prime Minister explained the role of the Bureau for Reintegration during the elections and mentioned that, together with the Joint Control Commission (JCC), will strive for cooperation with the national authorities responsible for conducting elections and for observance of the epidemiological norms by the citizens.

Perspectives of collaboration and effectiveness on human rights issues were also discussed, as well as possible areas of interest of the Republic of Moldova in the negotiation process during the taking over of Sweden’s OSCE Presidency.

Withal, the officials exchanged views on the implementation of the UN Resolution #1325 agenda.
