Meeting of the Deputy Prime Minister Oleg Serebrian with William Massolin, the Head of the Council of Europe Office in the Republic of Moldova

Aspects of the dialogue between Chisinau and Tiraspol were addressed during a meeting between the Deputy Prime Minister for Reintegration Oleg Serebrian and the Head of the Council of Europe Office in the Republic of Moldova, William Massolin, who congratulated him on his appointment to this important position.

The discussion focused on the excellent cooperation between the Republic of Moldova and the Council of Europe and the constant support received by Chisinau, including thematic expertise, best practice recommendations, projects on promoting confidence-building measures and other forms of multilateral assistance.

Deputy Prime Minister Oleg Serebrian stressed the need to keep the human rights issue in the Transnistrian region a priority, including in ensuring the observance of the right to education in the mother tongue, consolidating joint efforts in this area.

The need to consult and preventively brief the Bureau of Reintegration Policies on the programs and projects planned for implementing in the Transnistrian region was reiterated, with the joint drawing of priority lines of action in this regard.
