Deputy Prime Minister for reintegration Oleg Serebrian held a meeting yesterday with the representatives of the United Nations (UN) in the Republic of Moldova: the UN Resident Coordinator Office, UNDP, OHCHR and UN Women.

The discussions focused on the progress of the implementation of projects to promote confidence-building measures among residents on both banks of the Nistru river. The partners explored ideas on potential new initiatives with a priority focus on human rights, promotion of peace efforts and active involvement of women in these processes.

Deputy Prime Minister Oleg Serebrian welcomed the UN's readiness to develop new projects aimed at eliminating disparities between the two banks of the Nistru River, suggesting relevant areas of intervention in this regard: cooperation in the NGO sector, education, culture, youth and sports.
