Meeting of the Deputy Prime Minister Oleg Serebrian with the researchers of the Clingendael Institute of International Relations from the Netherlands

On June 21, 2022, Deputy Prime Minister for Reintegration Oleg Serebrian had a working meeting with researchers from the Clingendael Institute of International Relations from the Netherlands: Bob Deen and Wouter Zweers, who are on a documentation visit to the Republic of Moldova, being accompanied by Floris van Eijk, Chargé d'Affaires of the Kingdom of the Netherlands, and Iulian Groza, Executive Director of the Institute for European Policies and Reforms.

The subject of the conversation was the regional security situation in the context of the risks posed by the war in Ukraine, the measures taken by the national authorities to maintain a peaceful and stable situation, the mitigation of risks and vulnerabilities, support activities for people affected by current crises, including regarding Ukrainian refugees temporarily settled on the territory of the Republic of Moldova.

Issues related to the Transnistrian settlement process were also addressed, as were those regarding the role and contribution of international actors in this process, the impact of projects to promote confidence-building measures and deepening the European path of the Republic of Moldova, and the possibility of developing cooperation on projects aimed at strengthening the institutional capacity of the Bureau of Reintegration Policies.

