The Reintegration Policies Bureau in dialogue with experts from the academia

Today, June 23, 2023, the head and deputy head of the Reintegration Policies Bureau, Alin Gvidiani and Eugen Cara, discussed with experts and professors James Baker and Charles Francis Xavier Szymanski about potential cooperation and support activities for strengthening institutional capacities, by organizing professional development courses offered by external donors.

On the part of the Bureau, interest was expressed in trainings to strengthen the knowledge and skills of officials on effective techniques and methods of negotiation/mediation, elaboration of public policies on aspects of reintegration of the country, strategic communication, management of crises, etc.

It was agreed that productive cooperation would be developed in this regard.

