

A new course of training on aspects of immunization and providing pediatric services for medical workers from the left bank of river Nistru and Bender municipality

15.12.2021, Chisinau – Today, according to an order of the Ministry of Health, the specialists of the national medical institutions (National Agency for Public Health, IMSP “Institute of Mother and Child”, Nicolae Testemițanu State University of Medicine and Pharmacy) jointly with the representatives of the Country Bureau of the World Health Organization in the Republic of Moldova are organizing a course of training and development of abilities for workers of the medical centers in the Transnistrian region.

The workshop has been focused on aspects aiming the enhancement of capabilities in the Eastern districts in the area of immunization and pediatric services with an evaluation of the standards of monitorization of the healthy child in outpatient conditions through guiding and dissemination of good practices from trainers on the west bank of Nistru, presentation of the objectives and priorities of the European and global program of immunizations, examination of medical documentation, case studies, practical applications.

The beneficiaries of this training course were the medics-coordinators of the immunization and pediatric departments, having the purpose to provide access to quality medical services, based on scientific proof in the management of medical urgencies of children and side effects after immunization.

