The regional security situation has been discussed during the meeting of the Deputy Prime Minister for Reintegration with a group of Croatian Parliamentarians

Deputy Prime Minister Oleg Serebrian met today with the delegation of the European affairs committee of the Croatian Parliament, led by Domagoj Hajduković, Chairman of the European affairs committee.

During the talks, the officials discussed various topical issues, including the security situation in the region, the energy crisis, developments in the Transnistrian settlement process.

The openness of the Chisinau authorities was mentioned for finding complex solutions and support measures to be taken by our country to overcome the existing crises for the benefit of Moldovan citizens, who are in a particularly vulnerable situation as a result of the conflict between the Russian Federation and Ukraine.
