The situation in the Security Zone remains unchanged

The situation in the Security Zone is calm, with no changes compared to the previous period, announces the Delegation of the Republic of Moldova in the Joint Control Commission, according to information on the ground.

The flow of people and means of transport through internal customs posts remains constant in the current week, the number of checkpoints is unchanged, the staff of the posts has not been supplemented or armed, no movements of troops or military equipment have been fixed. No violations of discipline were reported among the peacekeepers.

The delegation of the Republic of Moldova in the Joint Control Commission continues to monitor the evolution of the situation in the Security Zone.

The Joint Control Commission is the governing body of the peacekeeping mission in the Security Zone which includes the localities along the Nistru River, on both banks. The delegation of the Republic of Moldova in the Joint Control Commission represents the interests of the Republic of Moldova and provides multilateral assistance to the process of peaceful and political settlement of the conflict in the Transnistrian region of the Republic of Moldova.

