

The „Last Bell” rang out in the Romanian language schools on the left bank of the Nistru River

On May 30, the representatives of the Reintegration Policies Bureau Aurelia Barbaroș and Ivan Țurcan participated in the solemn events of the end of the school year in the educational institutions teaching in the Romanian language, in the localities of Tiraspol, Rîbnița and Dorotcaia.

During the festive events, the representatives of the Bureau addressed a congratulatory message on behalf of the Deputy Prime Minister for reintegration to all students, graduates, teachers and parents on the traditional "Last Sound" ceremony, expressing their high appreciation and ensuring full support for cultivating, educating and the promotion of national values.

Admiration was also expressed for the activity carried out by the teaching staff who, despite the impediments and artificially created risks, succeed and continue to educate the children on the left side of the Nistru River in the spirit of the cultural-educational values of the Republic of Moldova.
