Current issues on the negotiation agenda discussed by the Deputy Prime Minister, Olga Cebotari, and the Head of the OSCE Mission to the Republic of Moldova, Claus Neukirch

20.04.2021, Chisinau – The Deputy Prime Minister for Reintegration, Olga Cebotari, had a meeting with the Head of the OSCE Mission to the Republic of Moldova, Claus Neukirch. They discussed the dynamics of the Chisinau-Tiraspol dialogue and the activity of the sectoral working groups, in particular of the experts on road transportation. The achievements on solving the technical problems regarding the functionality of the Vehicle Registration Points from Tiraspol and Ribnita were also mentioned.

The indispensability to obtain tangible results on human rights, to restore the unhindered movement of citizens to/from localities in the Transnistrian region, to ensure the effective process of immunization of the population, and to solve the most current problems, was also highlighted.

Readiness to organize and conduct an interactive dialogue to boost the negotiation process on the Transnistrian settlement was expressed, in case of the potential opening of the OSCE Presidency-in-Office and of the 5+2 mediators and observers to pay a working visit to the Republic of Moldova.
