Meeting of the Deputy Prime Minister for reintegration with the Ambassador of Lithuania to the Republic of Moldova

The Deputy Prime Minister for Reintegration Oleg Serebrian had a meeting with the Ambassador of the Republic of Lithuania to the Republic of Moldova, Tadas Valionis.

The discussion focused on current topics related to the situation in the region, risks to national security and ways to optimally manage them.

The two officials reviewed the special relations, of strong partnership and multidimensional cooperation between the two countries. The Deputy Prime Minister Oleg Serebrian expressed gratitude to the Lithuanian Ambassador for the permanent support provided by Vilnius to the Republic of Moldova, including in achieving the objectives related to integration into the European Union.

Referring to the current situation of the Transnistrian file, Deputy Prime Minister Oleg Serebrian emphasized that meetings in the "5+2" negotiation format cannot take place as long as the war started by the Russian Federation against Ukraine continues, reiterating the principled position of the authorities in Chisinau regarding the necessity to withdraw troops and armaments without a determined status from the Transnistrian region of our country.
